

Alvin Fuller Comstock Jr.

May 13, 1933 - February 3, 2017

Alvin Fuller Comstock Jr. passed away peacefully on February third. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Alice Emmons Comstock, children Al, Jill, and Charlie, grandchildren and, great grandchildren, sister and nieces and nephews.

He was born in 1933 in Hartford, CT, served four years in the Navy during the Korean War, and made his home in Guilford CT for 39 years until retiring in Hampstead NC where he has been for the last 20.

He was a Design Engineer at Pratt and Whitney, had a landscaping business and was a US postal worker. He was always a sportsman and enjoyed golfing and working in his yard. He was a wonderful father, husband, and friend.

A memorial service will be held at a later date with family.

Thank you to Lower Cape Fear Hospice for their caring staff and beautiful facility which allowed us to celebrate his life and allowed him to pass with dignity. In lieu of flowers we ask to please make donations to Lower Cape Fear Hospice of Wilmington, NC.

Arrangements are in the care of Coastal Cremations. To leave messages of comfort to the Comstock family, please click on "Share a Memory."

“ The first time I met him I knew I was going to have the best father-in-law.He was a kind and caring person. I was so fortunate to have known him as long as I did.I grew to love him very much. His son Al of whom I'm married to had learned from his dad how to be an honorable husband to me.He will be missed but never forgotten.
