so much love and laughter, and affectionately referred to her as Grandma Fang. She had a wonderful sense of humor, she was generous, caring and soft hearted for children and the less fortunate. Marilyn loved to cook and bake for her family and friends. She often welcomed a new neighbor or cooked one of her special dishes for a sick or hurting friend. She was a woman of strength, honor, and wisdom, she loves the Lord and loved to serve her church. Marilyn's husband, children, family and friends call her blessed, and will miss her dearly.
