“ I don't have any pictures of Uncle Rex to share but I do have so many wonderful memories of him. He loved his family and friends fiercely. I appreciate all the advice he ever offered and all the love. I can still see the images of him holding babies and telling me how sweet they were. It was so hard for me to hear the news of his passing and my first thoughts were of Aunt Donna and how she loved him and stood by him through it all. Thank you for your example of love and patience.
